Remarks

This exquisite 4-bedroom, 4-1/2-bath custom-built residence, designed by Mark Sultana, offers an unmatched combination of luxury and comfort. Situated along the Manatee River, this property once served as the original landing for the Fogartyville/Palmetto Ferry and provides breathtaking water views from nearly every window. The grand entrance features a stunning custom circular staircase that sets the tone for the entire home, showcasing impeccable craftsmanship and attention to detail. The expansive living areas are highlighted by a full-height travertine fireplace, creating a striking focal point and an inviting atmosphere. Throughout the home, pecky cypress ceilings add unique character and warmth, while Brazilian cherry hardwood floors provide timeless elegance. Custom lighting enhances the elegant ambiance, further elevating the home's refined interior. The thoughtfully designed layout boasts spacious bedrooms, luxurious bathrooms, and high-end finishes, ensuring both beauty and functionality in every corner. The spacious primary suite is a serene retreat with French doors leading to a private balcony with stunning river views, an oversized walk-in closet with custom built-ins to maximize storage and organization and a luxurious ensuite bathroom clad in polished
